

DeIDOT Winter Storm Update #1

[UPDATE] Governor John Carney has announced State of Delaware offices in all three counties are closed on Thursday, January 4, 2018

–

Dover – The Delaware Department of Transportation (DeIDOT) continues to prepare for the arrival of a statewide snow event. As of 10:00 p.m. Wednesday night, all DeIDOT maintenance & operations yards are fully staffed. Snow plows will be deployed as precipitation begins in the overnight hours.

The DeIDOT snow plow tracker is now active and available via the DeIDOT app and www.deidot.gov under the interactive maps icon.

Due to the forecasted severe conditions, Governor John Carney has announced State of Delaware offices in Sussex County are closed on Thursday, January 4, 2018, during regular business hours 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Non-essential employees who live or work in Sussex County are not to report to work for this period. Essential employees are to report as scheduled. Non-essential employees whose shift includes hours after 4:30 p.m. should check for updates throughout the day.

The Georgetown DMV will be closed on Thursday, January 4, 2018.

DART First State transit services will continue to operate throughout the day, however, delays can be expected.

DeIDOT will continue to provide regular updates throughout the duration of the storm event.

###